Who is Cobra?

This book is a comprehensive synthesis of my 3,500-page document, THE PORTAL INTEGRAL, which compiles every publication, conference, and interview from the contactee Cobra since 2012.

The information presented in this book—authorized for distribution—is sourced directly from Cobra's official blog: <http://2012portal.blogspot.com>

Cobra developed the concept of Tachyonization chambers, and his company, "New Energy Tachyon," distributes tachyonized products worldwide. Today, there are over 140 Tachyon chambers across the globe. Official website: <https://tachyonis.org>

Cobra travels the world throughout the year, activating the planet's sacred sites and sharing his knowledge during live events with those who wish to receive it. The information he provides is "direct" (non-channeled). It is relayed to him by Pleadians—as he is a Pleadian incarnated in a human body—and members of the Earth Resistance.

What is Cobra?

The ongoing compression process ensures that the Light will expose everything that is hidden, both collectively and individually. When the Light from above and the Light from below meet at the surface of the planet, it triggers the moment of the Compression Breakthrough. This event is known as "The Event".

The Event is not limited to the mass arrests of the Cabal; it is a multidimensional catalyst that initiates the transition into the long-awaited Golden Age. Once the darkness is removed, humanity will be empowered to co-create its own future.

COBRA is the codename for the 2012portal blog, which stands for: "COmpression BreAthrough".

Introduction

The purpose of this disclosure is to provide a profound, unfiltered look into the hidden realities shaping our world. You won't find this intel on mainstream news networks, nor is it available through standard alternative media channels. Prepare to unlearn almost everything you've been taught. The history and dogma force-fed to humanity over the past two millennia—spanning this incarnation and your past lives—have been meticulously engineered disinformation.

This information is deeply disturbing, but people have the right to know the truth; it is the only path toward healing.

Therefore, you have a choice. You can take the blue pill, forget everything, and continue with your daily life. By exploring this book, you are taking the red pill. Be warned: the briefings contained here will dramatically shatter your accepted worldview. You will need time to process the shock. But once you do, you will become a stabilizing pillar for those around you, because every human being on this planet will inevitably have to face these disclosures.

Introduction

Please understand that I cannot be held responsible for those who read this information or for their psychological reactions.

"To reach the truth, it is necessary, once in one's life, to cast aside all received opinions and to reconstruct anew the entire system of one's knowledge." — René Descartes

The authentic historical records were wiped out during the burning of the Library of Alexandria. Since then, almost all published history has been a fabricated narrative, intentionally designed to keep humanity enslaved within the Matrix. Now, the time has finally come to declassify the actual truth. Some of this information is being published for the very first time; some was last seen 4,000 years ago, while other parts have been kept secret within mystery schools for 3,000 to 5,000 years.

The time has come to release this to the surface population. The true objective of this information is to allow people to gain a global perspective and to know what is really occurring.

Throughout our lives, we have been subjected to various forms of programming. Everyone who came to this planet had to accept certain conditions, contracts, and agreements. Because the dark forces control the planet, we had to submit to implants and mental programming. These belief systems are the bedrock of current society on the surface of the planet; they are the foundation of the false reality that is constantly being created. Upon this primary layer of programming, we have received additional layers:

The emotional layer of parental programming: We accepted all the fears and worries of our fathers and mothers, which were imprinted into their energy fields.

1. The educational system: The vast majority of people on this planet submit to this process without question.

The primary psychological reason is that people want to be loved by those around them. This conformity is the main reason why the quarantine status has been maintained for 26,000 years. Many of those who questioned it managed to ascend during their lifetimes;

The portal of light

others chose to remain until the final process—which is happening today.

"The task is not so much to see what no one has yet seen, but to think what nobody has yet thought, about that which everybody sees." — Arthur Schopenhauer

All these layers of programming narrow the mind's perspective. Each person can only perceive a tiny aspect of reality. And, of course, the interpretation of reality is not what it truly is. Using a metaphor, if reality were an elephant, very few people could see the elephant in its entirety. Instead, people see the elephant from different angles and interpret it based on their own subjective reality.

In this reality, everything you can see—everything you can perceive with the naked eye—is located within a tiny circle of our galaxy. Therefore, everything you can perceive with your senses is but an infinitesimal part of the entire universe.

The development of science over the last few centuries has allowed people to expand this reality slightly. However, even the scientific perspective is limited, because the Quarantine controls have guided science in their preferred direction, preventing the discovery of many facts beyond the Veil.

Introduction

Cobra was able to experience what lies beyond the Veil while aboard a Russian military aircraft years ago. He witnessed certain things there; the most obvious being that the Earth is NOT flat, despite what some people still believe.

The other reality is that the energy field is far more beautiful and much less distorted; it is certain that we are currently living in a dark cave.

When we finally step out of this cave, we will discover that the universe is magnificent. What we are doing is orchestrating a Prison Break—we are shattering this artificially created prison. We will explain how this prison was established and, more importantly, how it will be dissolved.

A photograph of Cobra during a stratospheric flight aboard a MiG-29 in Russia. This journey, conducted at an altitude of over 60,000 feet, was intended to pierce 'the Veil' — the energetic barrier surrounding the Earth.

Beyond this limit, the curvature of the Earth becomes visible. Cobra also describes a sense of absolute purity, energized by tachyonic particles, completely out of reach of the 'Matrix' and its negative influences. This flight represents a 'crack' in the planet's quarantine system and a glimpse of true freedom.

Cosmic Reset

The Lurker has remained hidden within subquantum non-space for the vast majority of this cosmic cycle, silently driving the dark forces toward increasingly severe anomalies over the last few million years.

The Fall and the Galactic Wars

Around 8 million years ago, influenced by the Lurker, a specific task force of powerful Angelic beings descended into physical matter with the objective of dissolving the Primary Anomaly. They chose to directly experience the darkness and the primary anomaly. Manipulated by the Lurker into ever-greater distortions, these beings developed hyper-advanced technologies and subjected themselves to extreme electromagnetic scalar fields. This catastrophically warped the space-time continuum around them, inducing severe spiritual trauma. These fallen angelic beings ultimately became what we now know as the dark forces.

26,000 years ago, these dark factions weaponized Earth, transforming it into a fully operational "anomaly factory." Their goal? To farm human life force to feed malevolent presences; our negative emotions and suffering (loosh) are their feast. They didn't just build an anomaly-harvesting machine; they engineered a closed-loop "capture and recycle" matrix to trap the souls of sentient beings in an endless reincarnation cycle.

The Great Shift and the Event

It is crucial to understand the root cause of current events, the state of cosmic energies, and everything happening here right now. We will discuss how this quantum cosmic transition influences the Galactic Central Sun, how this Sun physically affects our solar system and planet Earth, and how solar activity and societal changes lead to the final Compression Breakthrough and The Event.

We are living through the Great Shift; it is about to unfold. The awakening of the population and the current series of events are reflections of this transformation. This intensity is a direct consequence of massive cosmic energies beginning to penetrate the surface of the planet.

These energies have two effects:

- They bring Awakening.
- They bring the Purification of everything that has been suppressed.

This is the reason for the intense experiences occurring on the planet's surface. This period of "madness" will not last forever; the purification process will continue until the breakthrough occurs.

The New Cosmic Cycle

The universe beyond our Solar System is already undergoing a vast restructuring. This is happening because it is entering a New Cosmic Cycle where all creation will align with the One. This process brings pure Light, Love, and Happiness to all beings throughout the Universe.

The Cosmic Central Sun is preparing to emit a massive pulse of Light throughout all Creation. This galactic flash will trigger the definitive elimination of all darkness, signaling the dawn of a new cosmic cycle. As a direct result of this intervention, "Bubbles of Heaven"—zones of pure Light and non-entropy—have already begun forming within the quarantined Earth's grid.

For the first time since the creation of this universe, areas completely free of the Primary Anomaly of quantum fluctuations have appeared. Although they are not yet stable, this is the first sign of the new cosmic cycle and the upcoming cosmic vacuum metastability event. When the false vacuum state collapses, a quantum-level shift will rearrange certain physical laws and eliminate all darkness, as darkness stems from the past cosmic cycle. We will eliminate all darkness at the quantum level.

The healing of the remaining quantum space-time anomaly on a galactic scale—the last vestige of the galactic wars that raged for millions of years—is underway. This means that "tortured space" is finally being straightened and healed, and the galactic body of the Pleroma appears healthier than ever.

The Planetary Reset is a radical shift in surface human society. Currently, society is structured in a highly unnatural and "inverted" way; it must be realigned with the Divine Design. This is part of a process where the old society collapses.

The key to triggering

The total solar eclipse of August 11, 1999, stands as the critical trigger-point for the current cosmic shift. In that precise window, the universe received the "Source Key" required to finally dissolve the darkness. This initiated an aggressive, massive cosmic purification protocol, plunging our planet into a drastic and volatile clearing phase that continues to challenge us today.

No one expected such a vast amount of darkness on the surface; however, it has been removed layer by layer until reaching where we stand now—very close to the breakthrough. Numerous advanced civilizations are participating in this process because this planet was chosen as the central portal of transformation. This is where the vast majority of cosmic attention is focused.

In 1996, backed into a corner, the dark forces executed a massive offensive by opening the dark wormholes of the Orion star system and transferring their assets directly to Earth. Orion had long been the primary staging ground for the dark fleet, but they chose to relocate their command centers here. Earth was selected as their absolute final stronghold.

Compression breakthrough

We were born in this era to facilitate the elimination of all darkness. You have all come here from different environments and were subjected to various experiences when you reincarnated on this planet. You could consider all the reincarnations you have lived through until now as training for this life. In your various past lives, you developed different skills and certain powers because you knew that this life was the end of the cycle. Important events will unfold in this lifetime; we are all currently achieving the breakthrough regarding the quarantine status of this planet.

This process requires a certain amount of energy—a massive amount of energy; it demands extreme dedication and skill. Many beings are called to participate in this process, but only a few have answered the call. This is why your task is more difficult: you must perform the work a thousand times over for the people. For this reason, all the training we received in past lives is useful to us today.

Our Ascension process, both personal and planetary, is also a galactic process and part of the "Great Prophecy of Purification." First, there is the completion of the great cosmic cycle that has lasted over 13 billion years; the universe is currently at the hinge between expansion and contraction.

In hyperdimensional physics, there is a law called the Syntropic Inequality. It states that the total entropy of the universe decreases over time because the universe is not a closed system. In reality, the decrease in entropy defines the time vector as always pointing from the past toward the future. This means that at a certain point in time, the total entropy of the universe decreases toward a point that ensures the absolute victory of Light over all darkness. Entropy is a physical quantity that characterizes the degree of disorganization of a system.

Indirect proof that this universe is about to experience a massive quantum transition comes from an unexpected source: Planck stars.

The portal of light

According to this model, contrary to the theory of general relativity—which explains that all matter crossing the black hole's horizon is irremediably pulled in without escape—the Planck star would stop collapsing and the matter would "bounce." Gravity would transitionally become repulsive so that, through quantum tunneling, the stellar black hole would explode into a white hole.

Planck stars are one possible description of the black hole phenomenon. When the universe enters this quantum transition, black holes as we know them will no longer exist in their current form, as certain laws of physics will change. This will happen at some point in the future—not the very near future, but it is the future of this universe; therefore, the entire situation will change. The laws of physics, physical constants, and the way light is transmitted will all change.

In addition to the completion of this great cosmic cycle, we are in the initial phase of a Galactic Pulse that is eliminating the part of the Primary Anomaly directly responsible for the existence of evil—the source and cause of all darkness.

The Mystery Schools called it the Shift of the Ages centuries ago, and it was known that there would be a moment of drastic rupture for planet Earth. The exact moment was not known, but the symbolic year was always identified as the year 2000—a symbolic number given hundreds and hundreds of years ago, which people expected to fulfill. Predicting the exact timing is impossible due to the free will of all parties involved.

After World War II, the Galactic Confederation chose to contact certain individuals on the surface of the planet to provide them with more details about this plan. Especially after 1953, there were many physical contacts.

As the year 2000 approached, we were very close; these individuals then tried to facilitate this change, and many wished for it to happen. When the Archons, the control forces, realized we were on the verge of liberating the planet, they created the final possible blockage: the so-called Congo invasion of 1996.

As a result of this invasion, there was a significant setback through which much darkness and negativity infiltrated. At that time, many negative ET races invaded the underground areas of the planet's upper crust, particularly through Deep Underground Military Bases (DUMBs) on the physical plane. Additionally, on the higher planes, many Reptilians arrived on the etheric and astral planes.

On May 17, 1998, a major reversal occurred, allowing for the elimination of much of this negativity. Now, we are reaching the point where most of the consequences of that invasion have been removed. We are thus approaching the tipping point, which is why we speak of The Event in the near future.

The Earth's surface is currently caught in a massive tactical squeeze: the Galactic Confederation fleets are advancing downward from the sky, while the Resistance Movement operatives are pushing upward from deep underground bases. This pincer movement is what we call the Compression Breakthrough.

The Event

When the Alpha timeline collapsed in the summer of 2019, a substantial change was made to the Ascension Plan. It then became absolutely clear to the Light Forces that surface humanity would not be able to undergo healing and liberation without direct physical intervention, and that surface society must pass through a slow collapse until direct intervention can be safely introduced without the dark forces destroying the planet.

Here, then, is the Ascension Plan:

First, the increased energy from the Galactic Central Sun will continue to purify all remaining quantum and subquantum anomaly around the planet and beyond, and the Light Forces will continue to eliminate all negative non-physical entities. When everything is ready, the Source will send an energy pulse from the Galactic Central Sun. This pulse is far more powerful than anything you have ever experienced before.

Second, solar activity will continue to increase as we reach the solar maximum of Solar Cycle 25. All negative timelines will collapse, and all timelines will converge toward The Event.

The portal of light

Once social volatility hits critical mass and sufficient quantum anomalies have been cleared, the Light Forces will temporarily pivot the planet's state of emergency into positive martial law. The surface population will undergo a brief, highly coordinated military lockdown, creating the operational security needed to execute the mass arrests of the Cabal. People will be instructed to remain strictly at home to ensure the safety of military operations without collateral damage. The positive forces will use quantum pulse weapons to block the weaponry of the negative military and to freeze troops and civilians who refuse to obey the orders of the Positive Military.

Resistance agents will consist of key individuals holding high-ranking positions in the military, the political system, the financial system, and intelligence agencies. They will be contacted first to know how to proceed, whom to call, and which direction to take.

There is much talk of the Golden Age, medical beds, replicators, teleportation chambers, space travel, etc. Genuine medical beds will be introduced after The Event.

After The Event, surface society will undergo a drastic transformation lasting a few years. The general population will continue to integrate the information regarding Revelations and Disclosure broadcast by the mass media and will begin to heal their deep psychological wounds from the dark past. Post-First Contact, suppressed black-project technologies will be declassified and released to the public—including Med Beds, free energy devices, interstellar travel, and quantum replicators.

The global network of Lightworkers will undergo a profound healing and upgrade protocol, supported directly by positive angelic energies and the Galactic Light Forces; much self-healing work remains to be done, as it takes a significant amount of time to completely purge a system.

While the most extreme psychopaths and sociopaths will be removed from the planet's surface during and shortly after The Event, many latent sociopaths will remain in society until the Galactic Superwave, keeping a low profile and causing no harm, knowing that any harmful action would trigger their swift removal.

There remains one important aspect of The Event plan that must stay secret and will be a great surprise for everyone.

THE EVENT (Global Lockdown: 1 to 2 weeks)

- Mass arrests of the Cabal / Illuminati.
- Interventions by the Positive Military.
- Information and Disclosure in the mass media.
- Up to 3 days of institutional closures.
- Financial Reset.
- 5 to 6 days of the sentencing process.
- Workers in critical infrastructure (electricity, food, internet, water) will be permitted to work.

Some of the information released may be disturbing, as the masses will realize the extent to which they have been controlled and manipulated. For some, this will likely be difficult to grasp. During the first weeks, we will receive general information about the structure of the dark forces and how they have operated for millennia. People will also receive general information about extraterrestrial life; this disclosure process will be gradual, yet as rapid as humanity can accept.

The portal of light

The Light Forces are aware of the general timeline, but they cannot publicly disclose the actual date of The Event. If the Light Forces were to announce the exact date, it would signal the death knell for the dark forces, causing them to panic and commit senseless acts harmful to the population. Furthermore, if Lightworkers knew the exact date, some might demobilize, quit their jobs, or be tempted to give up everything, doing nothing but waiting for The Event.
